Titles: 3      Sources: 2      Stills: 1

Born: US; 1942

In The Donna Reed Show with Paul Petersen

Halliwell's Filmgoer's Companion entry:

"American juvenile leading lady of the early sixties."

The History of Television comment on "The Donna Reed Show":

"Television comedy was still thriving despite the onslaught of action shows... There was Groucho Marx, who held forth on "You Bet Your Life", a seemingly spontaneous but well-rehearsed game show; "The Ann Sothern Show"; "The Eve Arden Show"; and "The Donna Reed Show", another entry in the homogenised-suburban sitcom sweepstakes. Reed, a former Oscar winner, starred with Carl Betz as her husband Dr Alex Stone and, as her children, Shelley Fabares and Paul Petersen. After the fashion of Ricky Nelson, who must have lived in the same neighbourhood, the teenagers each became recording stars apart from the show."
