Children's Film Foundation Catalogue & Index of Films 1972 note on "THE BRNO TRAIL":

"English version of a Czech children's film. Tanya, a young Russian girl, travelling overnight to Brno with her parents, wakes up to find that the train has stopped. Clad only in her pyjamas, she climbs down to see what is causing the delay, and is accidentally left behind in the middle of the countryside. Two local boys try to help her to rejoin her parents but involve her in many exciting incidents and adventures."
