Excerpt from 34th London Film Festival - 1990 - programme review:

“...Thirteen-year old Jo, fascinated by van Gogh, goes to Montreal for a summer art course. There she meets fellow-student Felix, who annoys her, and a suave art connoisseur who deceives her. This leads to canal chases in Amsterdam, on the trail of art-forgers, and for Jo a trip through time to 19th-century Arles to meet Vincent himself, and to try to put a smile on his face...”
